DEFENDANT: CHRISTOPHER CORNELL

CASE NUMBER: 1:15-CR-12

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of : Life

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

- The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
- The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable.)
- The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he or she resides, works, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

Defendant is prohibited from utilizing a computer during the term of supervised release with the exception of and solely for legal research, outside employment, as a specific class assignment in an accredited educational institution, or to send or receive typed email messages without attached electronic files or images embedded in the body of a message, as approved in advance by the probation officer.

While on supervised release, Defendant shall not possess or use any device of any kind, including but not limited to, a computer, Blackberry, iPhone, internet-enabled television or other device to access the internet, except as set forth above. Provided, however, that Defendant may possess one computer, provided that computer is disabled from accessing the internet.

Defendant shall provide his probation officer all passwords and other information necessary to access his computer or other internet-capable device.

Defendant shall identify to his probation officer the model, location, owner, serial number of the computer and any other internet capable device and any data or other information on it at the request of his probation officer.

If Defendant seeks to change the computer or other internet capable device that he uses, Defendant shall first request permission to do so from his probation officer, and Defendant shall comply with the requirements of this condition upon use of a new computer or other internet-capable device as authorized by his probation officer.

Defendant is required to install software to monitor computer activities on any computer Defendant is authorized to use, at Defendant's expense. The software may record any and all activities on the Defendant's computer, including the capturing of keystrokes, application information, internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversation. This software will be checked on a random basis. Defendant shall have no expectations of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer when monitoring software is installed, and he understands and agrees that information gathered by said software may be used against the Defendant in subsequent court actions regarding the Defendant's computer use and conditions of supervision. Defendant must warn other users of the existence of the software program. Defendant is prohibited from attempting to remove, tamper with, or alter or circumvent in any way, the software program. Defendant must comply with the rule set forth in the computer monitoring participation agreement.

Defendant's residence and employment shall be pre-approved by the probation officer.

Defendant shall not loiter near police stations, military bases, state, federal, or local government agencies or buildings unless for emergency services. Any visits to any such places must be pre-approved by his probation officer.
